PREAMBLE

About Conference:

Ayurveda has long been recognized for its success in treating Degenerative Disorders such as Neurological and Muscular degeneration, Osteoarthritis, and other Degenerative systemic conditions, offering holistic, individualized care. While its outcomes are impressive, there is growing demand for scientific validation and a deeper understanding of Ayurvedic principles within modern scientific framework.

This National Conference aims to bring together leading experts in Ayurveda and Modern science to foster collaboration, promote knowledge exchange, and explore evidence-based approaches for managing Degenerative Diseases. The event will focus on integrating traditional Ayurvedic practices with contemporary scientific advancements.

Sushrutha Ayurvedic Medical College and Hospital:

Sushrutha Ayurvedic Medical College and Hospital, established in 2002 and managed by the Yadalam Trust, offers high-quality education and healthcare in Ayurveda. The college blends traditional Ayurvedic knowledge with modern medical practices, providing students with hands-on clinical experience through its on-site hospital.

Accredited with NABET-QCI "A" grade, it is committed to nurturing skilled Ayurvedic practitioners who contribute to the global promotion of Ayurveda.

S-VYASA University:

S-VYASA University (Swami Vivekananda Yoga Anusandhana Samsthana) is a renowned deemed-to-be university recognized by the Government of India. Specializing in Yoga and its integration into holistic disease management, it offers Bachelor's to Doctoral programs. With an A+ NAAC accreditation, S-VYASA is a global leader in Yoga and integrated healthcare.

Vishwa Ayurveda Parishad (VAP):

Vishwa Ayurveda Parishad (VAP) is a national organization dedicated to advancing Ayurveda as an evidence-based, sustainable healthcare system. VAP unites practitioners, researchers, and clinicians to promote Ayurveda's global growth and enhance its role in improving the health and well-being of individuals, communities, and society.

Prashanti Kutiram:

Prashanti Kutiram is a serene, Gurukula-inspired campus located 32 km from Bengaluru, housing Sushrutha Ayurvedic Medical College and Hospital. The campus features advanced facilities, including the Anveshana Research Laboratory, Holistic Wellness Centers, and schools of Naturopathy, Physiotherapy, and Nursing, supporting a comprehensive approach to health and wellness.
